

OBJECTIVE

Detail-oriented Creative Designer with over 20 years of experience in creating visually compelling designs across various mediums. Eager to continue developing design skills, with a strong interest in transitioning to UX design to contribute to innovative, user-centered projects.

WORK EXPERIENCE

2022 - 2024

Systems Integrity Representative

Johnson Controls Inc - Aurora, Colorado

Responsible for quoting and selling Fire & Life Safety products and services based on inspection reports, ensuring the timely resolution of system deficiencies. Collaborated closely with Inspectors, Technicians, and Service Managers to develop accurate quotes and proposals, and followed up with customers to secure commitments. Managed lead generation and partnered on complex projects with Service Sales Representatives, while tracking all customer interactions in the CRM systems. Consistently exceeded annual sales quotas and performance expectations. Nominated and attended the National Future Leadership Program, graduating with distinction.

2019 - 2022

Inside Sales Representative

Johnson Controls .inc - Aurora, Colorado

Trained and supported customers with accurate, timely quotes and competitive pricing for Fire systems, differentiating the company from competitors in a strong team environment. Managed quoting and pricing processes, demonstrated problem-solving skills, and maintained a high level of organization across multiple projects. Provided excellent customer service and communication, ensuring follow-up and coordination with internal resources, contractors, and suppliers. Utilized Microsoft Excel, Word, and other tools to drive success. Promoted to Team Lead, where I doubled my annual sales quota in the first year and established lasting relationships with inside customers.

2012 - 2023

Owner & Senior Graphic Designer

Ladybug Graphics LLC - Aurora, Colorado

Designed marketing materials for small businesses, including logos, flyers, business cards, websites, ad spaces, and UI/UX design. Worked collaboratively with cross-functional teams to create cohesive brand identities and ensure marketing collateral met client objectives. Oversaw and edited 3D game designs and VFX projects for larger clients, coordinating closely with developers, animators, and project managers to deliver high-quality, on-brand designs. Fostered strong teamwork to deliver creative solutions under tight deadlines.
